

WASTE WATER SERVICES

SWMCOL wastewater services are dedicated to managing the refurbishment of sewer systems and to undertaking repair works. Included in the scope of works are plumbing, mechanical and electrical works; sampling, testing and analysis of wastewater; daily plant operations and monitoring, and emergency response. Clients range from schools, the government sector and commercial / industrial institutions.

CONSULTANCY SERVICES

SWMCOL has been in the business of Waste Management since November of 1980. During this period it has developed significant capability and experience and has a cadre of experts on its staff.

Part of its portfolio is to provide consultancy services to Government agencies and the private sector in the area of Waste Management and its affiliated fields.